

Integrated Management System Policy

According to the growing needs of the market in terms of quality, the management of ACL S.r.l. has decided to implement an Integrated Management System as a tool for improving company performance. The primary objective is to increase competitiveness on the market and customer satisfaction, through continuous improvement of processes and environmental performance.

In 2021 ACL s.r.l. joins the CEME group for which compliance with quality standards is of primary importance by investing in innovation and pursuing respect for the environment and the protection of the health and safety of all workers in all its activities.

The Management is committed to a process of implementation of the Integrated Management System at every company level in compliance with the requirements of the UNI EN ISO 9001: 2015 and UNI EN ISO 14001: 2015 standards.

The Management of ACL S.r.l. considers the Integrated Management System a cornerstone of its business strategy and is at the center of the company development policies. To achieve its objectives, the Management intends:

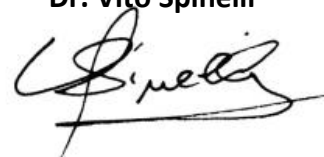

- commit to satisfying the requirements of customers and stakeholders
- periodically review the internal and external context in which the company operates and identify the risks and opportunities for the business
- define measurable objectives to continuously improve the quality of your product and processes, and to reduce the environmental impact of the organization,
- maintain Integrated Management System certification by an accredited body, operating with a view to continuous improvement,
- engage in environmental protection through the prevention of pollution and the adoption of initiatives that favor the spread of an environmental culture
- comply with all mandatory and voluntary regulations to which it has decided to adhere, in addition to specific regional or local conditions.

The scope of the points listed above requires maximum support from the company management, but also the involvement and effective collaboration of all staff in order to continue the growth and development of the company and the people who work there.
